

kingdom partnership

Developing relationships of mutual trust, with shared resources and shared control, in order to solve common problems, and share credit for a common vision.

vision

Shared vision and values: developing an inspiring picture of the future that reveals our passions, desires, loves, and convictions

problems

Shared problems and projects: identifying conflicts and threats to a flourishing community and addressing them proactively

trust

Shared experience and trust: identifying competencies, revealing character, making mutual commitments, and growing mutual understanding

resources

Shared resources: offering our time, talent, treasure, and prayer to advance our common goals

control

Shared control: engaging in honest negotiation about our needs, desires, and commitments credit

Shared credit: telling stories with our partners as the heroes, while flying the flag of God's Kingdom, not our own organization

Kingdom partnership consists of six points of unity. These points of unity are the way in which we measure the strength of our partnership, and they are the strategies for strengthening that partnership. Working to develop unity at these six points is the path to strengthening our partnership.
